OBITUARY.

William J. Duffy.

William J. Duffy, aged 59 years, died this morning at 3:45 o'clock at his home at the White Spring, of paralysis. Mr. Duffy suffered a stroke eight years ago and he has been in a practically helpless condition since that time. Mr. Duffy became widely known in this vicinity for his connection with the Sanford Hurricana farm where for 27 years he was employed as veterinary. His expert knowledge of thoroughbred horses made him a valuable man for the big breeding farm and he was closely interested in the development of the stock there. Not only was he valued as an employe but he was popular with his associates on the farm. Mr. Duffy was a man of generous impulses and genial character and the announcement of his death will cause profound regret among his large circle of friends. He was a member of St. Mary's church and besides his wife is survived by three sons, James, Joseph and Francis Duffy; four daughters, Mrs. Henry Wolff, Miss Anna Duffy, Mrs. Lester Abeling and Miss

Mrs. Julia Duffy.
